Interested consultants should clearly indicate the structure of their “association” and the duties of the partners and sub consultants in their application. Unclear expression of interests in terms of “in association with” and/or “in affiliation with”, etc. may not be considered for short listing.

Joint Venture agreement shall be authenticated in case of Contract Award.

15. Eligibility Criteria

Bidders entitled to take part in the procedure

Tenders from bidders will be admitted to the procedure provided that none of the following reasons for exclusion or conflicts of interest apply:

- a) Sanctions or embargoes of the Security Council of the United Nations, the EU or the German government preclude the participation of a bidder.
- b) The bidder is excluded from the tendering process with legal effect in the Client’s country on the grounds of punishable offences, especially fraud, corruption or other economic crimes.
- c) The bidder is a state-controlled company in the partner country that is not legally or economically independent or that is not subject to commercial law, or that is a public authority dependent on the Client or the Project Executing Agency or the recipient of the loan/financial contribution.
- d) The bidder or individual members of the bidder’s staff or a subcontractor has economic links or family ties with personnel of the Client who are involved in preparing the tender documents, awarding the contract or supervising the execution of the contract, insofar as the conflict of interests could not be resolved to KfW's satisfaction in advance of the contract award and execution phase.
- e) The bidder or individual members of the bidder’s staff or a subcontractor were directly involved in drawing up the terms of reference and/or other information for the tendering procedure. This shall not apply to Consultants who have produced preparatory studies for the contract or who were involved in a preceding phase, insofar as the information they prepared in this connection, especially feasibility studies, was made available to all bidders and the preparation of the terms of reference for the invitation to tender was not part of the activity.
- f) The bidder or individual members of the bidder's staff or a subcontractor are not or were not during the last 12 months prior to publication of the invitation to tender indirectly or directly linked to the project in question through employment as a staff member or advisor to the Client, and are not or were not able in this connection to influence the award of the contract for services, or the bidder is not or was not otherwise able to influence the award of the contract for services.

By signing the Declaration of Undertaking (see Annex 1), the bidder attests that none of these reasons for exclusion or conflicts of interest apply. In case of doubt, when tendering the bidder in question shall furnish proof to the satisfaction of the Client and KfW that the aforementioned reasons do not apply.

Independence of the Consultant

The Consultant must always be neutral and independent vis-à-vis potential suppliers for the project in question. Members of associated firms may participate in a project only as either Consultant or manufacturer/supplier/construction firm. When submitting proposals, Consultants must disclose any links with other firms and give a binding declaration that should they be awarded the contract, the firms with which they are associated do not intend to take part in the project in any other form. In a joint venture, this also applies to participating professionals and other consultancy firms. These regulations do not apply to Build-Operate-Transfer (BOT) projects or operator models.

Consultancy firms that belong to the same group of companies or affiliated companies or are linked in another way financially, organisationally or through personnel, can participate in the competitive tendering procedure individually only if no other member of the group or affiliation participates.

Annex 1 : Declaration of Undertaking

We underscore the importance of a free, fair and competitive contracting procedure that precludes abusive practices. In this respect we have neither offered nor granted directly or indirectly any inadmissible advantages to any public servant or other person nor accepted such advantages in connection with our bid, nor will we offer or grant or accept any such incentives or conditions in the present tendering process or, in the event that we are awarded the contract, in the subsequent execution of the contract. We also declare that no conflict of interest exists in the meaning of the kind described in the corresponding Guidelines¹.

We also underscore the importance of adhering to environmental and social standards in the implementation of the project. We undertake to comply with applicable labour laws and the Core Labour Standards of the International Labour Organization (ILO) as well as national and applicable international standards of environmental protection and health and safety standards.

We will inform our staff of their respective obligations and of their obligation to fulfil this declaration of undertaking and to obey the laws of the country of Republic of Turkey.

We also declare that our company/all members of the consortium has/have not been included in the list of sanctions of the United Nations, nor of the EU, nor of the German Government, nor in any other list of sanctions and affirm that our company/all members of the consortium will immediately inform the Client and KfW if this situation occurs at a later stage.

We acknowledge that, in the event that our company (or a member of the consortium) is added to a list of sanctions that is legally binding on the Client and/or KfW, the Client shall be entitled to exclude us/the consortium or, if the contract is awarded to our company/the consortium, to immediately cancel such contract if the statements made in the Declaration of Undertaking were objectively false or the reason for exclusion from the tender procedure occurs after the Declaration of Undertaking has been issued.
